RE: Barack Obama was born in Kenya. I personally obtained from his birth hospital and now have in my possession a certified copy of his original birth record from the British Protectorate of Kenya.

Dear Congresswoman Nancy Pelosi,

I am writing to you today regarding a matter of national security.

We may have spoken before. This letter will, in part, serve as my official record of my having contacted you regarding the above referenced subject matter.

The President of the United States of America is not eligible to serve as our President.

President Barack Hussein Obama II is not a natural born citizen of the United States of America. President Obama was born in Mombasa, British Protectorate of Kenya at the Coast Province General Hospital in 1961.

I, Lucas Smith, have proof of this.

In the month of February 2009 I was on the continent of Africa in the Democratic Republic of the Congo. This was not my first trip to the dark continent. The first time that I set foot on African soil was in the year 2007. In February of 2009 I traveled to the Congo to document the story of a cryptic (as in cryptozoology) animal that lives there in the Congo. This fabled creature is a dinosaur-like animal that is commonly referred to as Mokele Mbembe.

It should be noted that other such hidden, or once fabled, animals have been discovered in what is now the Democratic Republic of the Congo. The animal now known to most of the world as the Okapi was once considered to be a mythical creature by Europeans who referred to it as the African Unicorn.

In the same month of February 2009 I traveled throughout both of the Congos, Uganda and Kenya. I'd gone to Nairobi, Kenya specifically to interview a man that claims to have seen the animal (Mokele Mbembe) years ago when he was a soldier in the Congo.

Upon my arrival in Nairobi I was bombarded with questions in English on my feelings and opinions of a Kenyan governing the United States of America.

The first several times I responded in saying that not enough time had elapsed since Barack Obama's appointment as President of the USA. I went on to say that I'd have to hold my official opinion until at least January 2010. A year in Office might be sufficient for me to judge his ability to govern the USA.

Naturally I thought that by "Kenyan" they were referring to Barack Obama's blood, being that his father Barack Obama Sr was a native of Kenya. After a day and a half of my being in Nairobi I learned that they were literally referring to President Barack Obama Jr. as being born in Kenya, a native of Kenya.

Now I started asking questions; did his father's Kenyan blood somehow entitle Barack Jr to be the equivalent of a native Kenyan? No, not all, I was to find out. They were referring to Barack Obama Jr's physical birth on Kenyan soil.

Kenyans were amused at how gullible Americans could be when it came to obvious things like the fact that Kenyans overtly admit to Barack Jr's Kenyan birth, yet the Americans continue to believe that they know better.

I delved further and found that a birth certificate was on file at Coast Province General Hospital in Mombasa.

I traveled to Mombasa, Kenya with the specific intention of procuring some sort of birth record from the hospital (CPGH) that so many Kenyans had referred to as being the hospital where US President Barack Hussein Obama had been born.

Upon a perimeter inspection of the hospital (and with the help of a friend from the Congo) I ascertained that me even being allowed to enter the hospital was going to prove to be a task, and a tremendous one at that.

At that point I began to form an intricate plan which would not only grant me access to the hospital but also an opportunity to procure a certified copy of the hospital birth record of US President Barack Obama, if a birth record at the Kenyan hospital did indeed exist.

My ground plan entailed two hospitals in Mombasa, Kenya: Coast Province General Hospital and also a second hospital named Mombasa Hospital. My plan expanded to include a Kenyan military / police officer. The plan developed further and included a second Kenyan military / police officer.

I paid a total of three monetary bribes in the amounts of (in chronological order) $200 USD, $500 USD and $5,000 USD.

The whole undertaking also included the assistance of a friend from the Democratic Republic of the Congo.

My plan proved to be very effective and successful. On the 19th day of February 2009 I, Lucas Smith, walked out of the Coast Province General Hospital in Mombasa, Kenya with a certified copy of President Barack Hussein Obama II's original hospital birth certificate / record.

The birth certificate includes two signatures from 1961. One of the signatures is from the hand of the attending doctor, James O.W. Ang'awa; the other is that of the Supervisor of Obstetrics, John Kwame Odongo.

The British Protectorate of Kenya birth certificate also includes a 2009 stamp and signature from the Chief Administrator of Coast Province General Hospital, Helton Maganga. The certificate also includes a 2009 embossed seal from the Coast Province General Hospital, Mombasa, Kenya.

President Barack Hussein Obama II was born in Mombasa, British Protectorate of Kenya, in 1961. He was born to a father who himself was born in the Colony of Kenya.

It should also be noted that the father (born in 1939) never acquired US citizenship when he was in the United States of America via a student visa.

Honorable Congresswoman Pelosi, I respectfully request that you fulfill your lawful obligation to honor The Constitution of the United States of America and remove from Office the de facto President Barack Obama.

Without your help, Honorable Congresswoman, what options are left for 'We The People'? The Honorable Courts of our country make claims they lack jurisdiction and have also used the issue of 'standing' to avoid permitting the necessary investigation to take place.

Attached to this notarized letter addressed to you, I have included a copy of the 1961 Coast Province General Hospital birth certificate of US President (de facto) Barack Hussein Obama II. I have in my possession a certified copy of Mr. Obama's original birth record. As explained above, I personally obtained this document in February 2009 from his birth hospital in Mombasa, Kenya.

Honorable Congresswoman, before I close this letter I'd like to bring to your attention Senate Publication 103-21. This "103-21" is an edition of the Constitution of the United States of America that was published at some point during the 1990s, perhaps during the 103 Congress. I received an official copy of this "103-21" in the year 2001 as it was sent to me via US Postal Service mail from the United States Senate.

Senate Publication 103-21 contains not only a true and correct copy of the US Constitution but also brief explanations of each of the Constitution's sections which were prepared by the Office of the Secretary of the Senate with the assistance of Johnny H. Killian of the Library of Congress.

On page number 18 of Senate Pub.103-21, adjacent to Article II, Section 2, Clause 5 of the US Const., you will find the following explanation:

“This clause requires that in order to take oath of office a president must be 35, a resident within the United States for 14 years, and a natural-born citizen. This last requirement (natural-born citizen) raises the question of whether someone born to American parents outside of the United States would be eligible to hold the office.”

As I have stated in the forgoing, this above cited publication was prepared by the Office of the Secretary of the Senate with the assistance of Johnny H. Killian of the Library of Congress. As you may know, Mr. Johnny H. Killian advised Congress for more than 44 years on constitutional matters. As senior specialist in American public law at the Congressional Research Service, Mr. Killian was the person most often called upon when the constitutionality of a proposal was in question.

Mr. Killian was also the editor of and major contributor to the 1972, 1982, 1992 and 2002 editions of "Constitution of the United States of America: Analysis and Interpretation," nicknamed the Annotated, a seminal work on the judicial history of all constitutional amendments that is a standard text in U.S. law schools.

Senate Publication 103-21, prepared with the assistance of Johnny H. Killian, clearly states that the “natural-born citizen” clause of Article II, Section 2, Clause 5 of the US Constitution “raises the question of whether someone born to American parents outside of the United States would be eligible to hold the office”.

Attached to this notarized letter addressed to you, I have included a copy of page 18 of Senate Publication 103-21.

Honorable Congresswoman Pelosi, again I respectfully request and implore you to fulfill your lawful obligation to honor, follow, comply with and abide by The Constitution of the United States of America. You took an oath, and you took that oath freely, to support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic. Our de facto president Barack Obama was not born within the United States of America and is not eligible to hold office of President. It is your constitutional duty to openly and overtly investigate this matter.

I respectfully pray for the relief that Congress can provide by removing from Office the illegal de facto president, Barack Obama.

Please call me, Lucas Daniel Smith, as a witness in any Congressional investigation or hearing that you might conduct or hold regarding this matter that I have written to you about today on this glorious and masterful day of the 4th of July, 2010.

Thank you Congresswoman Nancy Pelosi.

Sincerely and respectfully,

Lucas Daniel Smith

ARTICLE II

No Person except a natural born Citizen, or a Citizen of the United States, at the time of the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be eligible to the Office of President; neither shall any person be eligible to that Office who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty five Years, and been fourteen Years a Resident within the United States.

In Case of the Removal of the President from Office, or of his Death, Resignation, or Inability to discharge the Powers and Duties of the said Office, the Same shall devolve on the Vice President, and the Congress may by Law provide for the Case of Removal, Death, Resignation or Inability, both of the President and Vice President, declaring what Officer shall then act as President, and such Officer shall act accordingly, until the Disability be removed, or a President shall be elected.

The President shall, at stated Times, receive for his Services, a Compensation, which shall neither be increased nor diminished during the Period for which he shall have been elected, and he shall not receive within that Period any other Emolument from the United States, or any of them.

This clause requires that in order to take the oath of office a president must be 35, a resident within the United States for 14 years, and a natural-born citizen. This last requirement raises the question of whether someone born to American parents outside of the United States would be eligible to hold the office.

The 25th amendment superseded this clause regarding presidential disability, vacancy of the office, and methods of succession.

To preserve the president's independence, Congress can neither raise nor lower the president's salary during his term. Nor can a president accept any other pay.
